

Saturday, June 28, 2008
BROWN COUNTY STATE PARK:
“Endangered Species Day”

Join us for these great programs for all ages.

All programs held at the Nature Center.

$1/adults, children under 5 free.

10am- “Songbird Coffee”- enjoy a cup with us and learn the status of several IN migrant songbirds, and how we can help.

11am- Indiana’s Bobcat- Terri to present this program about this rarely observed feline.

11:30am-The Park’s rare Yellowwood Tree- with a special gift!

1pm-The Timber Rattlesnake- Brittany to present this talk on the park’s endangered, venomous reptile, with a reference to the Indiana Box Turtle.

2pm- The Peregrine Falcon-Return to the Wild, hawk and owl rehabilitators to present this program.

9pm-Owl Prowl!- Join Volunteers Pat and Ginny for a night time venture to call up the owls. Bring a flashlight.
Meets at Lake Strahl Parking lot; ~1 hour